GED Alert

Please click here to find comprehensive and well-worth-the-time-to-thoroughly-read explanations to a variety of inquiries we've recently received from the field. Some of the information is duplicative of information already sent out; however, we continue to hear from instructors with repetitive inquiries.

Please remember the GED® test and accompanying systems are new to us as well. Some GEDTS-based decisions have not been communicated by GEDTS™, while other decisions that have been made and communicated by GEDTS™ are subject to change. We are diligent in our efforts to obtain and forward answers to our and your questions as efficiently as possible.

Please note that KYAE's responsibilities have changed with the new system. We are responsible for Kentucky policies, however, GEDTS™ Pearson VUE is responsible for the Ready™ test, MyGED™ portal, Pearson VUE testing centers, and the official GED® test.

The system does not lend itself to the development of a standardized manual or brief of step-by-step processes.

Therefore, we continue to strongly encourage you to share this information with your staff so that they are as well informed as you are.
